ABOUT THE PROGRAM

---

01

The Realcare Data Analyst Mentorship Program (RDAMP) is a 4-week immersive mentorship program designed to transform aspiring data analysts into job-ready professionals through hands-on experience.

02

Instead of traditional classroom teaching, participants are guided by industry-experienced mentors, receive task-based challenges, and gain real exposure to solving business problems with data.

03

Whether you're bridging the gap between learning and doing or looking to enhance your portfolio, this internship simulates what it's like to work in a real-world data role—with feedback, guidance, and results that count.
